.....
Appearance:

Shri Mrigendra Singh Baghel -Senior Advocate with Miss Akanksha Singh Chauhan - Advocate for the applicant.

Shri C.K. Mishra - Government Advocate for the respondent/State.

ORDER

This is the first application filed by the applicant under Section 482 of Bharatiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 seeking anticipatory bail in connection with Crime No.914/2025 registered at Police Station Kotwali, District Sidhi for the offence punishable under Sections 296, 115(2), 118, 351, 333, 109 and 103(1) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the case. The applicant is a Government servant and there is no specific allegation against the applicant. Nowhere, it has been stated that the applicant has assaulted the victim and her family members. Both the parties are family members and due to some family dispute, the FIR has been lodged against the applicant. Hence, he be granted the benefit of anticipatory bail.

3. Learned counsel for the State has opposed the bail application and submitted that the victim Basanti Saket has suffered grievous injuries and the injuries were caused by hard and sharp object, therefore, no case of bail is made out, hence, the anticipatory bail of the applicant be dismissed.

4. Heard the learned counsel for both the parties and perused the case diary.

5. There is allegation that the co-accused Bhagwat Prasad Saket along with his sons and the applicant entered into the house of the victim and started destroying the fencing, when she has taken the objection, four accused persons started abusing her and Bhagwat Prasad Saket assaulted her with an axe. She suffered injuries on her head and hand. When her daughter-in-law and her husband Jag Jahir came to rescue her, Bhagwat Prasad, Trilok, Ramswaroop and Ishwardeen assaulted them also. Ramswaroop assaulted them by iron rod and the applicant and Ishwardeen were having lathis. In these allegations, there is no specific role has been assigned to this applicant. No medical report of Jag Jahir has been submitted along with record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances brought on record, this Court deems it fit to enlarge the applicant on anticipatory bail. Hence, without commenting anything on the merits of the case, the application is allowed.

7. It is directed that in the event of arrest, the applicant shall be enlarged on bail on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand Only) with one solvent surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer for his appearance before him during the course of investigation or before the trial Court concerned during trial, as the case may be.

8. Applicant is directed to cooperate with the investigating agency and shall also appear on the date and time, as directed by the Investigating Officer.

9. It is further directed that the applicants shall abide by all the conditions as enumerated under Section 482(2) of BNSS.

10. Accordingly, the application stands disposed of.

Certified copy as per rules.
